

Procurement for Supply Chain Management Rel 8.11

This class consists of hands-on instruction on procurement functionality for stock and expense-related purchases in a manufacturing environment, a distribution environment, or both. You will learn how to configure and manage purchase orders, process receipts, match vouchers, and perform other procurement functions including an integrated case study. Procurement for Supply Chain Management 8.11 provides organizations with a deeper understanding of how to reduce operational costs with an integrated procurement process.

Audience:

- Functional Implementer

Course Objectives:

- Describe the procure to pay process flow
- Determine product and supplier information
- Process purchase orders
- Set up procurement system
- Perform Procurement Functions
- Define approval process
- Use advanced procurement features
- Track supplier information
- Illustrate System Integration
- Analyze Inquiries and Reports