

Requirements Planning Rel 8.12

Duration: 4 Days

What you will learn

This course provides hands-on instruction on setting up and generating requirements planning solutions to meet the overall business objectives of your company. This course discusses the planning tools used to identify what your company builds and buys. You will be able to identify the inputs and outputs of the planning system. You will learn the requirements planning processes that will enable you to determine the appropriate set up and processing for your implementation and enhance the usability of the system for your company.

Audience

Functional Implementer

Prerequisites

Suggested Prerequisites

Common Foundation 8.11

Course Objectives

- Describe the requirements planning business process
- Establish requirements planning information
- Build master production schedules (MPS)
- Determine material requirements plans (MRP)
- Evaluate different planning environments

Course Topics

Overview of JD Edwards EnterpriseOne Requirements Planning

Setting Up Requirements Planning

Determining Supply and Demand Information

Describing Forecasts

Defining Master Production Schedules (MPS)

Generating MPS

Analyzing MPS

Defining Forecast Consumption

Explaining Capacity Planning

Defining Material Requirements Planning (MRP)

Evaluating MRP

Creating Multi-facility Plans

Determining Planning Information for Other Manufacturing Environments

Creating Supplier Release Schedules

Using Additional Planning Tools